

Name _____

Comma Worksheet

Using your notes on comma rules, place the commas in the appropriate place in the examples below.

1. Ted wants to study this morning but he plans to jog first.
2. The high school baseball season ends in late July and football practice begins in early August.
3. The tall dark-haired and exotic-looking young star captured the hearts of the audience.
4. The limping exhausted runner could hardly finish the marathon.
5. In front of the long column of troops on the field the general introduced his successor.
6. I simply do not agree you realize with your argument.
7. State Highway 101 expanded to two lanes in 1953 needs to be widened to at least four lanes now.
8. Rudyard Kipling was born in Bombay India on December 30 1865.
9. They camped in Calgary Alberta Canada last summer.
10. On May 1 2007 he began work as a landscaper; she as a dental hygienist.
11. When I asked my father for advice he told me I was old enough to make my own decisions.
12. Reaching the platform Congressman Brooks the featured speaker waved to the crowd.
13. A monthly newsletter is published by the American Civil Liberties Union 22 East 40th Street New York NY 10016.
14. W. H. Auden the noted poet was born in York England on February 21 1907.
15. Well in spite of the large number of items I can consider your suggestions by the end of the week.
16. If you see my mother the woman who usually sits at the receptionist's desk please tell her I will be home late.

Name _____